Every effort has been made to maintain absolute accuracy in compiling this Calendar at the time of going to press (August 2013). In the event that your details are incorrect please alert your faculty lead Leigh Ward (Arts and Humanities), Zak Kadrou (Languages and Cultures) or Richard Story (Law and Social Sciences). For Professional Services entries please contact Sangeeta Banerjee (Communications and Events).

Dr Tim Miller
Tim was appointed Chairman of the Governing Body in January 2010. He has been with Standard Chartered Bank since May 2000 and, until recently, was Director, Property, Research and Assurance, a role which encompasses the corporate real estate, compliance and regulatory risk, legal and global research functions. He is currently Vice-Chairman, Governance, working in regulatory compliance. Tim is also Chairman of Standard Chartered Korea Limited. He is a non-executive director of Michael Page International plc, a Special Professor at Nottingham Business School, and is on the advisory Boards of Nottingham Trent University and the Centre of High Performance HR at the University of Lancaster.

Professor Paul Webley
Paul has been the Director of SOAS since August 2006. Previously, he served as Senior Deputy Vice-Chancellor at the University of Exeter. His undergraduate and postgraduate education was at the London School of Economics. Following a short term at the University of Southampton, he moved to the institution that was to become his academic and professional home for 26 years, the University of Exeter. He is currently Deputy Vice-Chancellor of the University of London, Chair of UK Council for International Student Affairs and a member of the Board of the Universities and Colleges Employers’ Association. He is a Professor of Economic Psychology and a member of the Editorial Board of the Journal of Economic Psychology.
Richard is Pro-Director (Research and Enterprise). Richard took up the post of Pro-Director in September 2013, coming from the University of Sussex where he had been Head of the School of Global Studies since 2009. Trained as a geographer at Oxford and Royal Holloway, University of London, he started his teaching career at King’s College London in 1989, moving to Sussex in 1995. He was editor of the Journal of Refugee Studies from 1994-2009 and was elected as an Academician of the Academy of Social Sciences in 2012. Richard’s research has focused on the relationship between migration and poverty, forced migration, and most recently on migration in the context of climate change, and he has field experience across various countries of Sub-Saharan Africa.

Nirmala is a qualified accountant and was appointed to the Governing Body in February 2011. He was a partner in KPMG London from 1990 to 2010. During this period he helped establish KPMG’s practice in India and was its Chairman and CEO from 2000 to 2003, based in Mumbai. On his return he was Founder-Director of the UK India Business Council and a member of the Asian Business Association. He is a trustee of the National Gallery and Chair of AMREF UK, a NGO which has its headquarters in Nairobi. He is Non-Executive Director of the Barts and London NHS Trust and ZincOX Resources plc.

Susie joined the Governing Body in September 2012 and is appointed Chair of the Estates and Infrastructure Committee. Susie has had a long career in investment banking, most recently as Managing Director and Head of New Business for Europe, Middle East and Africa for Credit Suisse. In her previous role, she was chief operating officer with global responsibility for corporate real estate and procurement functions. Susie is a qualified accountant and holds an MBA. She is currently a trustee of the Credit Suisse charitable foundation in EMEA, a Governor and Chairman elect of Chigwell School and was formerly a Non-Executive Director of Young Enterprise London. She has a personal interest in East Africa, where she travels frequently.

Leah is the Co-President for Welfare and Campaigns at the Students’ Union. In 2013 she completed a degree in Social Anthropology. She previously served as the Students’ Union Accommodation Officer, setting up and chairing a Residents Council in the schools halls of residence. During her studies she was the volunteer coordinator for the Islington branch of FoodCycle, a charity which aims to tackle food waste and food poverty through serving community meals using surplus food.

Sir Graham Fry

Sir Graham was appointed to the Governing Body in September 2008 as the representative of the Foreign and Commonwealth Office (FCO). He was British Ambassador to Japan from 2004 to 2008 and High Commissioner in Malaysia from 1998 to 2001, before retiring from the FCO in 2008. A fluent Japanese speaker, Sir Graham lived in Japan for 12 years. He now visits Japan regularly as a non-executive Director of Eisai Co Ltd and an adviser to other Japanese companies. He is a council member of the Wildfowl and Wetlands Trust.
Mr Charles Ilako
Charles was appointed a member of the Governing Body in September 2010. He is currently Executive Director of the UK Pension Regulator as well as a senior advisor to the Financial Services Authority. He was a partner with PwC from 1999 to 2009. He has a number of interests in Africa including being a founding member and current advisory board member of Africa24 Media an organisation that promotes better journalistic reporting of social, political, economic, health and educational in Africa.

Ms Rosna Mortuza
Rosna was appointed a member of the Governing Body in September 2010. She is a Senior Manager in the NHS with experience in commissioning, contracting and service redesign to reduce health inequalities. Prior to this, Rosna developed the Connexions Youth Service across South East London, receiving the Jack Petchey Award for Outstanding Work with Young People. Among numerous voluntary roles, Rosna was awarded First Prize by the Lord Mayor’s 800th Anniversary Awards Trust in relation to youth volunteering and global citizenship. She has also served her former primary school as a School Governor in the London Borough of Tower Hamlets.

Mr Andrew Popham
Andrew Popham joined the Audit Committee in September 2012. He is a Reporting Panel Member of the Competition Commission and an external member of the Audit Committee of the National Trust. He is a chartered accountant and was a partner in PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP from 1987 to 2012, most recently as Global Head of Compliance. From 2006 to 2010 he worked in Tokyo and Hong Kong as risk, quality and regulatory leader for PwC’s Asia-Pacific region. Before moving to Asia he was Vice President of FEE, the European Federation of Accountants. Chairman of the UK accountability bodies’ European Issues Task Force and a member of the UK Financial Reporting Review Panel. He was appointed to the Governing Body in August 2013.

Mr John Robinson
John joined SOAS as Director of Library and Information Services in March 2009, having worked in a variety of roles in the university sector since 1974. Immediately before joining SOAS he was at King’s College London as JISC Director of Services, responsible for the JISC services portfolio which includes JANET (the national academic network), JISC Collections and a number of support and advisory services. Library and Information Services includes the SOAS Library, Information Systems, ICT, Multimedia and Print Services, supporting SOAS’ staff, students and external visitors. He sits on a number of external bodies including the Board of Research Libraries UK (RLUK).

Professor David Mosse
David Mosse is Professor of Social Anthropology and Head of the Department of Anthropology and Sociology. He studied social anthropology at Oxford University from where he received a DPhil. He has published extensively on the anthropology of religion, environment and development. He is a Fellow of the British Academy, and on the editorial boards of World Development, American Ethnologist and Journal of Development Studies. He has worked for Oxfam as Representative for South India, and for other international development agencies as a social development adviser. He joined SOAS in 1997. He was appointed to Governing Body in September 2013.

Professor Christine Oughton
Professor of Management Economics and Head of the Department of Financial and Management Studies at SOAS, University of London. She received her PhD in Economics from the University of Cambridge. Before joining SOAS she was Professor of Economics and Management, University of Bologna, Italy (where she is now Visiting Professor) and Professor of Management at Birkbeck, University of London. In 2006 she was made an Academician of the Academy of Social Sciences. Her research focuses on industrial organisation, innovation, regional economic performance and corporate governance. She is currently researching the measurement and effects of corporate diversity in financial services. She was appointed to Governing Body in September 2013.

Professor David Skinner
David is an alumnus of SOAS, having completed an MSc in Political Science in 1985. He also has degrees from Oxford and the School of Slavonic and East European Studies. David has spent much of his early career in Government, including time in Brussels and Hong Kong (from 1992 to 1997 he coordinated the Hong Kong handover negotiations). Since 2005, David has worked for Save the Children. From 2005 to 2010, he directed their first global campaign – Rewrite the Future – for education for children affected by armed conflict. He was Country Director in Afghanistan from 2009 to 2012 and is currently Country Director in Pakistan.

Mr Steve Tinton
Steve was appointed to the Governing Body in 2012 and is Chair of the Audit Committee. From 2006 to the present he has held various Non-Executive Director and Audit Chair posts in Strategic Health Authorities and Acute Hospital Trusts within the NHS and he was a Non-Executive Director and Audit Chair of OCS with its extensive interests in Asia. In 2013 he was appointed a member of the World Health Organisation, Independent Oversight Expert Advisory Committee. Steve retired from PwC in 2006, where he was the Risk Management Leader for the Asia Pacific region. Prior to this role, he was responsible for multinational audits and acquisitions. As part of this role he carried out quality control reviews in Africa, Asia and the Middle East. Steve is a Fellow of the Institute of Chartered Accountants in England and Wales and graduated in Geography from St Catharine’s College Cambridge following time volunteering in India.

PROFESSIONAL AND SUPPORT SERVICES

Directorate of Library and Information Services

The Library and Information Services Directorate (LIS) is responsible for the SOAS Library (the UK National Research Library for Asia, Africa and the Middle East), the provision of the Information Systems and the Learning Resources, ICT, MultiMedia and Print Services upon which SOAS Learning, Teaching and Research depends.

The directorate is organised into three primary divisions: the SOAS Library (Research Library Services including Acquisitions & Bibliographic Services, Archives & Special Collections, Teaching & Research Support); Information Systems (primary ICT infrastructure and corporate systems); Operational Services (support for all users of services including Library Reader Services, the LIS Service Desk, MultiMedia & Printing Services, Classroom Support).

There is an Assistant Director who is responsible for each of these major sections within the directorate, supported by a small central administration team.

During 2013 LIS will launch the SOAS Digital Library, responsible for the development, curating and preservation of the School’s digital assets.

The structure and staffing of the Directorate is subject to change. The latest information can be found at www.soas.ac.uk/lis
