CANDIDATES' PAPERS

I N T R O D U C T I O N

These Papers, containing the pre-L.M.S. story of our missionaries, also throw light on the social conditions and theological views of the period.

Amongst the Unaccepted Candidates are to be found the Papers of a number of men who made good in the Home Ministry, or who served in other Societies.

Appended are a few extracts showing the way the Call came to a few of the Candidates, and the way the Society set out to obtain recruits.

The numbers volunteering over a given period, indicated by the number of Unaccepted Candidates during that time, usually means that some special appeal has been made about that time.

W.Howe, 392

"The request of Messrs.Gogerly and Philip led me to promise to think of the subject and to watch the leadings of providence in reference to the work."

J.Ketley 275 Answers to Questions, 1856

"About 2 years ago Mr.Richd Knill made an appeal on behalf of the Directors of the L.M.S. to young men who had the love of Christ in their heart to come forward and engage in the work."

From Louise Spahn's Papers - to Examination Committee Member from ? - 1888 - "you have little idea how many utterly unsuitable people either write or come to see me of whom the Committee never hear, it would be wrong to waste their time with bringing forward the illiterate epistles and the young candidates from shops, etc., it is only those who are at all likely whose offers are brought to the committee."

From E.B.Riley's Papers -

From Caleb Scott, Principal, Lancs.College, Jan,18, 1898 -

"Recent intending applicants from our College to the L:M.S. were informed that there were no vacancies so it was no use applying. Hence Knowles, now of Oldham and others relinquished their intention of becoming missionaries. Others in the College are sure to apply in due time."

In these same papers there is the suggestion that Riley's sister was discouraged from pursuing her application because she had no private means.

Evangelical Mag. Aug. 1835, p.341 -

Letter from J.R.Morrison - "And the strong conviction of the urgent want that there is of labourers coupled with some personal experien--ces of the miserably degraded state of Chinese ..."

The Directors fervently pray that this appeal may not be made in vain; that the hearts of those bearing the heat and burthen of the day, enfeebled by the bereavements of sickness and death, and embarrassed by the active and malevolent hostility of their adversaries, amy be cheered by beholding others animated by the spirit of true self-consecration to Christ, and ready to share the perils and labours, and finally the triumphs of the devoted band, ...

Statements like this constitute to the would-be missionary an advertisment for candidates.

J.Snarts, 1798, in his Papers says - "In consequence of the invitation held out at Zion Chapel for artists, etc, on the present Expedition to the above-named islands."

From Thanksgiving Sermon preached by Dr.Haweis, on safe return of the Duff, at Zion Chapel, August 6, 1798, p.57 - to be found in vol.2 of Missionary Sermons -

"Renew your efforts, ye men of God of this Society, to spread farther and wider that adored, that endearing name which is as ointment poured forth. ....think nothing yet done, where so much remains to be accomplished...

Come forth, ye spirits of the just, burning with love of Jesus, and zeal for the salvation of mankind. Ye ministers of flame, that wait on hissanctuary, cherish the divine impression, that prompts to this arduous service. Rise up to lead the faithful warriors to renewed conflicts. Ye faithful, whom the Lord hath furnished with ability and zeal to build up the ark of his church, the smiths, the carpenters that smooth the planks, as well as the architects that plan the fabric, awake, as in the ancient days. Ye men of science in every department, especially in medicine and surgery, shew yourselves; the miseries of the diseased, and the dying cry aloud for your healing hand. Ye ready labourers all, thrust in the sharp sickle, for the harvest of the earth is fully ripe; and he that reapeth, receiveth wages, and gathereth fruit unto eternal life; veri verily your remard shall be great in heaven. O! that the people might offer themselves willingly - the silver and the gold are his..."

From J.H.Parker's Candidates Papers.

Bishops Stortford,
Aug.18, 1838

.....A very extraordinary change seems to have taken place with regard to candidates for the Missionary work. Not long ago there was a loud call for Men, and now you have more than you want. This I hope is a good sign. It creates however a necessity for greater caution than ever in the choice of candidates.
It may be supposed that the extraordinary impulse given to the public mind by Mr.Williams' book, and the increased popularity it imparted to the Missionary cause, has had some influence with many, without however any want of higher considerations. But it calls for so much the more wisdom, and divine guidance in the selection to be made. There is nothing however to be apprehended of this kind in the case of Mr.Parker....

Wm.Chaplin

Missionary Magazine, Dec.1861. p.325

In the confident hope that the report of Mr.Ellis will justify the measure, the Directors in the meantime have resolved to use all practicable means to send forth, in the early part of the ensuing spring, a band of Missionaries (not less than six in number), suitably qualified for the different departments of labour demanded by the new circumstances of the Church in Madagascar, and by the favourable facilities likely to be afforded for the extension of the Gospel among the multitudes who are yet the victimes of impure habits and debasing superstitions. In addition to Brethren directly bearing the Missionary office, it is hope that other devoted individuals may be found - one, at least, well instructed in surgery and medicine; a second, with qualifications for promoting general and Christian education, by training Native Schoolmasters; and a third, practically acquainted with the art of printing.

From W.Poole's Papers

Coventry, Oct.5, 1798

..I wish to know whether more missionaries are wanted, as I have some reason to hope others of our friends feel disposed to offer themselves."

G.Burder

For influence of John Williams, see Walford, and Viney, both of whom want to go back with him.

From Nichols' Papers - Miss Dale gone to India to superintend a 1826 school.

Report, 1826, p.55 -

Bellary

Mr. and Mrs. Beynon, Miss Dale, and Master Augustus Desgranges, arrived at Madras on the 14th of September, and on the 27th commenced their journey to Bellary, where they have arrived safe.

(Under what conditions, and for how long, was Miss Dale in India. No further mention in Reports.
